

IC 23-18-3

Chapter 3. Relations of Members and Managers to Persons Dealing With a Limited Liability Company

IC 23-18-3-1

Members and managers as agents; companies existing on or before June 30, 1999

Sec. 1. (a) Unless otherwise provided in a written operating agreement, a limited liability company existing under this article on or before June 30, 1999, is governed by this section.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c), each member is an agent of the limited liability company for the purpose of the limited liability company's business or affairs, and the act of any member, including the execution in the name of the limited liability company of an instrument for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business or affairs of the limited liability company, binds the limited liability company, unless:

- (1) the acting member does not have authority to act for the limited liability company in the particular matter; and
- (2) the person with whom the member is dealing has knowledge of the fact that the member does not have the authority to act.

(c) If the articles of organization provide for a manager or managers, and except to the extent provided in the articles of organization:

- (1) a member acting solely in the capacity as a member is not an agent of the limited liability company; and
- (2) each manager is an agent of the limited liability company for the purpose of its business or affairs, and the act of any manager, including the execution in the name of the limited liability company of any instrument, for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business or affairs of the limited liability company binds the limited liability company, unless the manager so acting does not have authority to act for the limited liability company in the particular matter, and the person with whom the manager is dealing has knowledge of the fact that the manager does not have the authority to act.

(d) An act of a manager or a member that is not apparently for the carrying on in the usual way the business of the limited liability company does not bind the limited liability company unless authorized in accordance with a written operating agreement or by the unanimous consent of all members at any time.

As added by P.L.8-1993, SEC.301. Amended by P.L.269-1999, SEC.1.

IC 23-18-3-1.1

Members and managers as agents; companies formed after June 30, 1999

Sec. 1.1. (a) A limited liability company formed under this article after June 30, 1999, is governed by this section.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) or the articles of organization, each member is an agent of the limited liability company for the purpose of the limited liability company's business or affairs, and the act of any member, including the execution in the name of the limited liability company of an instrument for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business or affairs of the limited liability company, binds the limited liability company, unless:

(1) the acting member does not have authority to act for the limited liability company in the particular matter; and

(2) the person with whom the member is dealing has knowledge of the fact that the member does not have the authority to act.

(c) If the articles of organization provide for a manager or managers, and except to the extent provided in the articles of organization:

(1) a member acting solely in the capacity as a member is not an agent of the limited liability company; and

(2) each manager is an agent of the limited liability company for the purpose of its business or affairs, and the act of any manager, including the execution in the name of the limited liability company of any instrument, for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business or affairs of the limited liability company binds the limited liability company, unless the manager does not have authority to act for the limited liability company in the particular matter, and the person with whom the manager is dealing has knowledge of the fact that the manager does not have the authority to act.

(d) An act of a manager or member that is not apparently for the carrying on in the usual way the business of the limited liability company does not bind the limited liability company unless authorized in accordance with a written operating agreement or by the unanimous consent of all members at any time.

As added by P.L.269-1999, SEC.2.

Notice to member or manager imputed to company; exceptions

Sec. 2. (a) Except as provided in subsection (b), notice to a member of a matter relating to the business or affairs of the limited liability company and the knowledge of the member acting in the particular matter acquired while a member or of which the person had knowledge at the time of becoming a member, and the knowledge of any other member who reasonably could and should have communicated the knowledge to the acting member, is notice to the limited liability company, except in the case of a fraud on the limited liability company committed by or with the consent of that member.

(b) If the articles of organization provide for a manager or managers:

(1) notice to a manager of a matter relating to the business or affairs of the limited liability company, and the knowledge of the manager acting in the particular matter, acquired while a manager or of which the person had knowledge at the time of becoming a manager, and the knowledge of any other manager who reasonably could and should have communicated the knowledge to the acting manager, is notice to the limited liability company, except in the case of a fraud on the limited liability company committed by or with the consent of that manager; and

(2) notice to or knowledge of any member of a limited liability company while the member is acting solely in the capacity of a member is not notice to or knowledge of the limited liability company.

As added by P.L.8-1993, SEC.301.

IC 23-18-3-3

Personal liability of members, managers, agents, or employees

Sec. 3. (a) A member, a manager, an agent, or an employee of a limited liability company is not personally liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the limited liability company, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise, or for the acts or omissions of any other member, manager, agent, or employee of the limited liability company. A member, a manager, an agent, or an employee of a limited liability company may be personally liable for the person's own acts or omissions.

(b) This article and Indiana law exclusively govern any conflict between Indiana law and the laws of another state with regard to the liability of a member, a manager, an agent, or an employee of a limited liability company organized and existing under this article for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the limited liability company, or for the acts or omissions of other members, managers, agents, or employees of the limited liability company.

As added by P.L.8-1993, SEC.301.

IC 23-18-3-4

Professional services; liability

Sec. 4. (a) This article does not alter any law applicable to the relationship between a person rendering professional services and a person receiving professional services, including liability arising out of the professional services.

(b) A person rendering professional services as a member, a manager, an employee, or an agent of a limited liability company is personally liable for the consequences of the person's acts or omissions to the extent provided by Indiana law or the laws of another state where the person is considered responsible.

As added by P.L.8-1993, SEC.301.

IC 23-18-3-5

Member as party to proceeding

Sec. 5. A member of a limited liability company may not be made a party to a proceeding by or against a limited liability company solely by reason of being a member of the limited liability company, except:

- (1) when the object of the proceeding is to enforce a member's right against or liability to the limited liability company; or
- (2) in an action brought under IC 23-18-8-1.

As added by P.L.8-1993, SEC.301.
